To the Editors of the Enquirer. Gentlemen: I send you the following for publication. With high respect DANIEL PANNILL.

[Correspondence with Gen. Z. Taylor.]
ORANGE COUNTY, Feb., 1848. Dear Sir: At a meeting of a portion of the eeple of this county, called on the 24th inst., that eing the day of the monthly Court of Orange, a esolution was unanimously adopted, inviting you a public dinner to be given at Orange Court House Va., at the time you may designate, as an evidence of the high respect cherished for you y the citizens of Orange. It was made our leasing duty to inform you of this desire of the eople of your native county; a desire which aries from the consideration of distinguished services and patriotic devotion at times calculated to ty the souls of men. At such periods you were constant and true, -and by such a life of toil you have reached an enviable heigh; - your services have been for the nation, and the nation will cherish your tame as one of its brightest jewels .-But we of Orange feel a little more than national pride,-a distinct, isolated and independent pride, arising from the fact that your nativity was here upon the red mountains of Orange, though on distant fields you won the green wreath of honor, and a nation's gratitude. We hope, Sir, it will be convenient for you to accept this invitation given without distinction of party. Need we assure you that, whilst your exit from Orange in early intancy was noiseless and without pageantry, that your return would be hailed by the heartelt shouts of the multitude, and the outpouring of a reople's love? Wishing you long life and continual usefulness to our beloved country, We remain, with high respect, your obedient rrants, DAVID PANNILL.

B. JOHNSON BARBOUR, BENJAMIN WALKER, GARRETT SCOTT. BATON Roves, March 7th, 1848.

Gentlemen : I have had the pleasure of receiving your very kind and considerate communicainviting me, in behalf of the citizens of Orange county, to partake with them of a public monial of the regard of the citizens of my native I need hardly assure you that this testicounty, has been with the liveliest emotions of gratitude, and that could I yield with propriety to my inclinations, I would gladly accept your hospitable invitation. But I sincerely regret to inform you man I am debarred the gratifiation, by the circumstances of my present leave t absence from duty.

With my best wishes, gentlemen, for your success through life, I remain, very respectfully, your obedient servant, Z. TAYLOR. Messrs. D. PANNILL, B. J. BARBOUR, and others. PRINCE EDWARD COUNTY.

At a meeting of a por ion of the Democratic party of Prince Edward, held in the large jury oom of the Court House, on Monday, the 20th March, Court day, John W. Redd was called to the Chair, and L. C. Jeffress appointed Secre-

The object of the meeting having been ex plained by Mr. S. C. Anderson, William T. Wooten, Esq., was nominated as a candidate to represent this county in the next Legislature: whereupon, the vote having been taken, he was unanimously chosen.

On mo ion, Resolved, That Colonel John Foster, James T. Price and Thomas Clerk be appointed a committee to inform Mr. Wooten of his nomination, and request his acceptance. The committee retired, and after a short while reported that Mr. Wooten would accept the nomination. On motion, Resolved, That every member of the Democratic party of this county, who can find it convenient to attend, be appointed as delegates to the Farmville Convention on the 2nd May, for the purpose of sending delegates to the Balti-

On motion, Resolved, That the thanks of the Democratic party of Prince Edward are due to B W. Womack, Esq., our worthy delegate in the present Legislature, for his devotion to our interests and the faithful discharge of his duties. Resolved, That a copy of our proceedings be forwarded to the Richmond Enquirer for publication, with a request that the Examiner will copy JOHN W. REDD, Chairman. L. C. JEFFRES, Secretary.

He departed this life on the 23d of February, at his chosen home, in Wisconsin territory. His attending physician states that his comp aint was of a pulmonary character, and ended in the destruction of his lungs. The sickness which caused his death began on the 10th of January, and lasted without intermission (excepting one week, during which time hopes were entertained for his recovery) till the 23d ult., when his spirit bade farewell to things of earth, and sought a resting place in the world never seen by mortal eyes. Mr. Conway was a young man of brilliant talents, and had he lived, and unlied with them energy, perseverance and firmness, he might have rai ed himself to any distinction to which he may have aspired. Mr. Conway was a staduate in law, under Judge Beverly Tucker, at William and Mary loses a son in whom she had much promise. At a 4th of July dinner in '45, given by the students of our beloved old College, Mr. Conway was atoasted as being an "ornament to his Aima Mater, and as being destined to be one of his country." Alas! how little did the author of that complimentary toast think that set three years from that time should have passed that Beneca M Conway would no longer be one among us; but surely his talent foretold that he was to be one of his country, yet Death interposed. [Correspondence of the Richmond Enquirer.] WASHINGTON, MONDAY, APRIL 3, P. M. SENATE.

The reception of petitions being the first business in order, a number were presented.

Mr. Allen moved to take up the resolution which he had previously offered, congratulating the people of France on the establishment of Upon this motion a long debate ensued, which was participated in by Messrs. Crittenden, Bag-by, Burler, Benton and Downs. The question on the motion to take up was decided by year and nays, as follows-yeas 21, nays 22. So the Senate refused to take up the resolution. Mr. Crittenden moved to proceed to the order of the day, being the bill to relieve for one year the Judges of the Supreme Court of the United Slates from Circuit Court duty.

This motion gave rise to a debate, which was participated in by Messrs. Cass, Benton and Crittenden. On being put to the vote, the motion was agreed to.

bill was read and then laid aside, and the Senate, on motion of Mr. Hannegan, went into

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. Three several motions were made this morning to suspend the rules to enable the House to act on business out of its regular order. On each motion, the year and nays were demanded and taken, and the House refused so to proceed, each call showing a majority of nays. Various resolutions sympathizing with the people of France were offered, and Mr. Duer moved to refer them to a select committee, to be composed of one member from each State. A debate sprung up on Mr. D.'s motion, which was participated in by Messrs. Donnell, Hilliard, McClernand, C. J. Ingersoll, Haskell, Joseph R. Ingersoll, Cummings, Giddings, Bayly and Duer. The discussion was quite aminated -the question of slavery having been introduced into it-and was continued till a late hour, when on motion the House adjourned. Mr. Ashmun has the floor on this question for

SPLENDID STOCK OF PIANO FORTES

DRINKER & MORRIS, Publishers and Booksellers are receiving by every packet PIANO FORTES of the latest and most elegant patterns, in rosewood cases, from six to seven octaves. Our assortment is now the most commanding ever offered in Virginia, and we have no hesitation in saying that we offer inducements to purchasers never before met with in this market. Indeed, our prices are even lower than instruments of equal quality can be obtained in the Northern markets. Our assortment embraces the square Pianos manufactured by the celebrated II. Worsester, of New York, and the magnificent GRAND PI-ANOS and PIANINOS, manufactured by the renowned Pianist, Henri Hers, Paris.

The superiority of the instruments we offer is attested by the approbation of numerous distinguished professors and amateurs, both in the North and South. We respectfully ask of purchasers an examination of the above instruments. March 24

Arabian Horse, Shaheen. This Horse is believed to be the finest specimen of the Arabian race ever imported into the United States. He was purchased by our Minister at Constantinople after much experience in the observation of the horse of that country, and numerous efforts to find an animal of the best blood and finest parts. He hotieves that he fully succeeded, as an extract from one of his letters, hereto appended, amply shows. It is deemed uninecessary to publish his Arabian pedigree in the original ortranslate form, as it would be unintelligible to most persons—but it can be seen by all those who are curious on such subjects.

DR. BEACH'S AMERICAN PRACTICE OF MEDICINE, AND Family Physician.

WASHINGTON, D. C.

HAVING purchased Mr. E. Hall's interest in this establishment, we beg leave to inform our friends and the traveling commanity that the house is now open for the reception of visiters. Its situation being only a few minutes walk from the Ruiforad Depot and the Capitol, renders it one of the most desirous locations in the city.

By giving our personal attention to our guests, we house to merit a share of public patronage.
